BLACKBURNE HOUSE

YOUR BLACKBURNE HOUSE WEDDING UNIQUE, HISTORIC, STYLISH, URBAN...MEMORABLE

Liverpool's Blackburne House is located in the heart of the Georgian Quarter in a beautiful, Grade II-listed building – a wedding venue to remember.

Dating back to 1744, Blackburne House retains its original charm and style, offering a wedding venue with a difference and complemented by the locally sourced and freshly produced menu options from our very own Bistro kitchens.

The building has a deep-rooted history in providing education to women and girls – dating as far back as the mid-1800s as the first girl's school in the country.

Each of our rooms is named after an inspiring woman that has helped to shape the city of Liverpool – from Eleanor Rathbone to June Henfrey.

While continuing the important work in the community as an education centre for women from the city region, Blackburne House is a social enterprise meaning all our income supports the education and wellbeing of local women.
